PETRIFIED BODY

Was Found in the Mayfield Cemetery Saturday in Almost Perfect Condition.

Mayfield Messenger: Sexton J. R. Byrn informs us that he found a petrified human body at the city cemetery Saturday afternoon. He and several other gentlemen were engaged in removing the remains of W. D. Compton from the same cemetery. At the cemetery to the new addition east and conjecture to have found the body in a perfect state of preservation, naturally formed and as firm as stone. The body was found in about two feet of water, the grave being in the lowest part of the slope excavation of the north part of the cemetery.

A deal was closed last Saturday by Mr. Henry Cowgill, owner of the Hickman telephone exchange, for the sale of the local system to the Cumberland Telephone & Telegraph Co., a branch of the American Bell Telephone Company. The new owners are to take charge December 1, and it is understood that Mr. Cowgill will continue as manager of the local system.

THE CANDIDATE.

We kissed the baby and rubbed the hands of friends and kinsmen, and while the others were laughing and whistling for two—but that don't count. He highly praised the candidate that he vainly tried to chaw, and forthwith begged for the receipt, of course that ticked me—but that don't count. But that's what counts—ix.

DAMAGE FROM LEVEE WORK.

U. S. Engineer's Office, Memphis: November 19, 1900.

Wm. H. Young, Hickman, Ky.: My Friends of the 17th received it in testimony in all levee work for all questions connected with the right of way condemnation, or purchase of the land necessary for this purpose and any damage done to the property or persons during the construction of the levee or any other damage done to the land or to persons by the levee work.

Before the Hickman-Slough Landing bridge was made, such levee works were referred to the authority of the local levee board—Lake County, Tenn., and it was the understanding of this office that this local levee board would, as in other cases, perform their duty in this respect and consequently all amounts of damage laid before this office or Assistant Engineer Levesque, have been referred to the president of the levee board, and it is greatly to my surprise I find the levee board holds no responsibility for the damage.

In order to prevent the possibility of a second levee board being withheld all documents for levee work until this office performs these functions.

An affidavit has yet been made by the United States for the construction of the levee, no damages have been brought forward in this case, and I am unable to say whether or not the levee department in these exceptional circumstances is liable for the damage.

When I can get time, and would very much appreciate your assistance in duplicating the documents and claims and statement being in detail and under oath. Very respectfully,

R. H. Winslow,
Captain of Engineers.

A. W. LINDSEY DEAD.

County Attorney and a Prominent Citizen of Hickman, Died, Yesterday Evening.

Mr. A. W. Lindsey, County Attorney, and a well known young lawyer and citizen, died at the Leachette Hotel in Hickman, Tuesday, 320 p. m., after an illness of 5 or 6 weeks, of typhoid fever. The deceased came to Hickman some ten years since from his native state, Virginia, and from the first grew in the favor and admiration of the people of this country. He was a County Attorney, a popular favorite seemed to be in store for him.

He was a man who had had a hard struggle in his boyhood, working to educate himself to help other people and death seems doubly hard to those who are used to it. His positions seemed secured. He was generous and frank-hearted, true in his word, a good, open, considerate and kind man. He was a member of the Episcopal church, and a member of the Masonic Lodge from early boyhood. He was a bachelor. His nearest relatives being sisters and brothers. May the Peace which passed with him abide with his spirit through all eternity.

Quite a crowd of people were in town Saturday, especially in the afternoon, as all set themselves and business was good with our merchants.

The Courier has a straight tip on three managers of well known Hickman young men to occur soon. All are to meet at home, however. Now guess who'll win.

It is a noticeable fact that many good items are lost to newspaper every week by the modesty of people here to tell the whole story, especially concerning themselves. The right thing to do is to stop a newspaper man on the street or any other place and tell him what you have on a roll, so that he may have relatives visiting you, that your wife entertained company or anything that is in any way important. If you have not done anything mean, of course, keep that to yourself, for there are always others to tell that.

In the issue in announcement of A. W. Braxton as a candidate for County Court Clerk, he was well known to the people. There is no true gentleman in the county in one that is more competent for the position.

A CARD

Through the Courier, in behalf of myself and relatives, permit me to express thanks to the friends and good citizens of Hickman, our home, for their heartfelt sympathy for their kind minister and his son.

My son, Warren Lindsey, during his illness, I implored God to call him home, and now, in his death, I can only realize that he was so kindly and tenderly cared for, and by those who once were his friends, since we strengthen to him the words of the Master, "My God help you, one and all, is the prayer of his brother."

AS TO MCKINLEY'S SUCCESS.

Reelection Does Not Signify a Fall and Free Indorsement by the People.

Reflection to the presidency is naturally prompted by the fortunate candidate's success in the personal compliment and plaudits of nomination. The larger the vote the more flattering is the commendation supposed to be. Yet the approval may be quite sincere; the election may contain also a lesson in warning. It is the weakness of human nature that, as a reelected president should return to power with a heightened sense of his responsibilities, the deeper apprehension of the obligations imposed upon him by his added exalted position, that he may in reality accept incomparably as a sign that he has been wholly admirable in the past and will be well-nigh infallible in the future. This is not only the defeated candidate who will be humility and self-seeking seeking to find wherein he is prone to error.

William McKinley will enter upon his second term in the result of a vote which leaves no potential doubt as to the popular preference for him against his leading opponent. Yet in his reduced pluralities in certain states where his attitude on the money issue should have swayed his vote by two or three reasons for serious thought. Thechests, for instance, is not a state where Mr. Bryan's popular tendency to error.

THE MCKINLEY MINSTRELS.

"Uncle Sam, now dat de campaign am over, can I do a little talking?"
"Yes, William, but don't let me catch you trying to do any thinking."
"The entira company will now do a cakewalk and sing an anthem entitled: 'Gee! Won't We Squeeze the People in the Next Four Years!'" one are welcome by any means, but Massachusetts, owing to the scattered anti-imperialist sentiment of its voters, cut down McKinley's plurality of 1900 by 100,000 votes. In New York, a state of immense economic and industrial resources, his plurality was fairly cut in two, though the popular uprising against Croker and Crumblie largely offset the effort of Croker to make Bryan.

The reason for this lesson which is not in himself a strong man; he is the medium through which strong forces operate. His nature is pliable, his hand is to yield, and still will power is a potent factor. As a result of his pliancy and opportunism we have now to deal with a problem resulting from the line of a settled and enlightened policy in the campaign. This is another result of the fact that in the steady growth of certain tendencies looking to the centralization of wealth in improper means and for improper purposes, the administration has shown in its administration how it views the general perception of its duty in the matter of the trust problem, and still less has it shown any purpose to take any effective action thereon. These trusts will not be stopped, and those which are not are no longer to be stopped, and those which own their very existence to favoritism and bad legislation have all been grouped in the same class, and treated with uniformly stern regard by the administration. The movement of public opinion of reform and return of public offices of reform in discrimination in railway rates which should divide the two classes, leaving unbarred the most beneficial combination, has resulted in a partial curbing and curbing those which are harmful, seemed to have formed up part of the administration's programme.

McKinley, in order to make himself known as an earnest friend of measures beneficial to the great mass of the people as distinguished from the interests of the few who have power and influence—Cheque Record (Int'l).

Mark Hanna confesses, and he does it with a depression commensurate with the well-known modesty of his shrinking nature, that he did lie for him to be the next president while he was in the political joint in the settlement. He heard the cry "Boys, he could not help but hear." Those westerners have a way of talking so loud! Utica Observer.

DEMOCRACY'S FUTURE.

The Party Will Always Combat Imperialism and the Work Against the Trusts.

"Will the democratic party," asks a New York paper, "now be restored to the control of its reason and its common sense, or will it remain in the real opposition?" Much depends upon what is meant by "its reason and its common sense." If "reason" and "conscience" mean complete acquiescence in imperialism, militarism and the unrestricted right of capital to dominate the world, then the democratic party as a whole will probably never return to the "conscience" of its "reason" and "conscience." Part of it may return, but not all.

The future of the democratic party, it seems, is already the theme of speculation.

No one can predict its development.

MISS HELEN GOULD

Tells of the Stewardship of Wealth
Field for the Genernations.

New York Telegram to the Chicago Herald.]

"How to make the most of wealth" was a question recently asked of Miss Helen Gould, whose stewardship of her own great wealth has made her the pride of every woman in the country, and of which is true and noble and womanly. She has answered it in a letter, parts of which are, by permission of the Christian Herald, printed. Her answer was characteristically sensible:

"The Christian idea of wealth 'as a stewardship or trust,' she wrote 'and not to be used for one's personal pleasure alone, but for the welfare of others, especially the widow and those who have more money or better culture, owe a debt to those who have had fewer opportunities. And there are no many ways one can help!'

"Children, the sick and the aged on specially, have claims on our attention, and in forms of work for them are numerous—from kindergartens, day nurseries and industrial schools to homes and hospitals."

Our institutions for higher education require gifts in order to do their best work, for the tuition fees do not cover the expense of the advantages offered, and certainly nothing such as those in our churches and the Young Women's Christian Association and the Young Men's Christian Association deserve our interest."

The honest workers who so earnestly and lovingly give their lives to promote the welfare of others give far more than those who had simply made gifts of money, so those who cannot afford to give largely need not feel disengaged on that count. After all, sympathy and good will may be a greater force than wealth, and we can all contribute to others a kind of sympathetic feeling that will make life sweeter and better."

"Sometimes it seems to me that we do not sufficiently realize the good that is done by money that is used in the different industries in giving employment to great numbers of people under the direction of clever men and women, and surely it takes more ability, perseverance and time to successfully manage such an enterprise than merely make gifts."

DISMAL SHIPPING.

The annual report of Commissioner of Navigation Chamberlain makes a dismal record of shipping, and makes an appeal for money in the hope of building up our trade. The United States employs 30 per cent. of the active tonnage of the world for its commerce, yet only 9 per cent. of all our imports are carried in American bottoms. Our tonnage comprises 23,333 vessels of 5,164,839 gross tons, but they are mostly employed in coastwise and lake trade, where foreign competition is impossible. Great Britain has built more vessels in the last year than we have built in a decade.

QUESTIONS TO ANSWER.

An exchange propounds the following queries. Can you answer any of them? "You can any day see a white horse, how is it to be known?"—What is white gold? How many kinds of trees grow in your neighborhood, and what are they good for? Why does a horse eat grass backward and a cow forward? Why does a horse always wind one way and a bear wind the other? Where should the inside of a chimney be the largest—at the top or bottom, now why? Can you tell a man from a woman with a rope always encircles at what a cow twists it into knots? Why do leaves turn upside down just before a rain? What is the length of a horse's head, is it as long as a flour barrel? What animals have no front teeth and why?

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS OF THE PAST WEEK.

QUIT TOO SOON.

Terke Goss After That Revenue Job in a Harry—Want Contest the Governorship.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—John W. Yerkes, late Republican candidate for Governor of Kentucky has been re-appointed Collector of Internal Revenue for the Eighth District. He, with all his old duties at once.

Mr. Yerkes resigned this position a few days after the election, to take the Governorship, which upon being defeated for that office, made application for re-appointment. He has abandoned the idea of contesting Beckham's election.

TRUE TO THE SOUTH.

Mothers Are Urged to Teach Their Children the Causes of the Civil War.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Nov. 18.—The convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy is to be held here this week. The word "National" was taken off the name of the society, the members preferring to have it known as a purely Southern organization. The officers' reports showed that the society now has 20,000 members, and over 600 chapters, the result of the faithful work of the women of the South.

Mr. W. C. Black, the president, elicited much applause when she called upon those present to educate their children as true Southerners, in the full knowledge of the war and the causes that led up to it. She said:

"They should be taught why their fathers gave up everything, even life itself, for the principles involved."

REMARKABLE ESCAPE.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 19.—A remarkable burial took place on a farm in this county Monday. Thomas McPheters was engaged in digging a well on the farm of Charles Schellman, (OH) township, Sullivan county. Mr. McPheters had gotten to a depth of thirty feet from the surface when the sand subsided in and he was covered over again.

It happened that the curving form of an arch overhead and early Tuesday morning it was discovered that McPheters was still alive and well. After much exertion on the part of those engaged in an effort to save him, a two-inch hole was gashed down to him, and through it he was fed liquid, such as soap, milk, etc. A force of forty men were gathered around and a much larger well dug alongside of the one saved in, and McPheters was rescued without a scratch after having been buried for thirty-eight hours.

NEW NAVAL GUN A SUCCESS.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—Important tests of the new twelve-inch naval gun, which is the type of the greatest gun to be found in the new battleships and armament vessels, have been in progress yesterday and today at Indian Head proving grounds.

The gun is the first of forty for the new ships, and much interest has been shown in its performance. It is a modification of the old 12-inch gun, with an enlarged chamber, suited for the use of smokeless powder.

THREE NEGROES: LYNCHED.

JEFFERSON, Tex., Nov. 17.—Three negroes, Elija Westham, Freeman, Tom barn and Jim Shaw, were taken from jail here by a mob last night, and hanged to the railroad bridge in the lower part of the city.

They are the three men who waylaid and clubbed Doctor Statup into insensibility a few nights ago, and from whom he is in a painful condition. The three negroes had lived in Jefferson all their lives.

TO LOCATE NORTH POLE.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., Nov. 18.—Mr. E. Baldwin, who, as a member of the Wellmann expedition, spent the winter of 1893-94 in Franz Josef Land, and was a member of the Peary expedition of 1893-94, has arrived here in search of means to finance another polar expedition for his projected North Pole venture next summer, backed by the purse of William Ziegler. He will secure a sealing steamer prior to next spring's sealing voyage, if possible.

BOERS CUTTING RAILROADS.

LONDON, Nov. 30.—The Boers, according to the Cape Town correspondent of the Daily Mail, have broken the railway line in several places between Bloemfontein and the Orange river, and the line was cut yesterday between Kimberley and Belmont.

IMPERIALISM'S HORRORS.

EL PASO, Tex., Nov. 18.—The North Pacific passenger train from the west last night brought a caravan of insane negro soldiers from the Philippines Islands. The negroes were under strong guard, en route to Washington, where they will be placed in an asylum.

Many soldiers in the Orient have, it is said, gone deranged from various causes, and the medical corps of the army is pained at the situation.

PROSPEROUS HOME.

Offered the Colored Men of the States of Kentucky and Tennessee
—A New Colony.

A Nashville, Tennessee special telegram says:—"A large colony of Southern negroes will leave in a few days for Honolulu and on the big sugar plantations there. They will be given land, education, and mills in Honolulu are about to open, and have written to this section frequently of late with regard to securing a large delegation of Southern laborers. F. A. Montague and A. T. Mason, who have been working in the interest of the race, have secured contracts to transport ten thousand negroes to the sugar plantations of Hawaii, and are now engaged in a campaign to recruit a colony. The negroes are to receive free transportation and lucrative work opportunities at Honolulu. So far the project is meeting with success, and it looks as if several thousand negroes will make the trip. Monday twenty-five white men from Nashville and New Orleans left Honolulu to work in sugar mills.

Honolulu is reported to be a model development, clipper ships and steamers constantly arriving for its production, and in a climate all that could be wished. The island of which Honolulu is the capital is now a parcel of the United States and is in close proximity to our Pacific coast to make a trip a real pleasure. Great inducements are offered the immigrant who is physically fit right to perform what may be required of him and a life there would be both profitable and pleasant. Those who have small amount of funds necessary to carry them to the island and are not overly desirous of getting heavily their condition will make no mistake in applying for Honolulu as the first opportunity.

THAT LITTLE LAMB.

The "Mary" who had a "little lamb" last summer, and who had been adopted into a pair of twin nests, had adopted one of a pair of twin nests, and the lamb strayed away, and on her way to school Mary found it, and actually left it to take it with her to the class.

A young man named Bowlin, the son of a Boston racing master, who was fitting himself at Harvard, was at that hour day, and wrote the story that has become immortal. The lamb lived to be a very old sheep, and was finally killed by an angry cow.

MISS VILLAGE BLACKSMITH SAVED HIS LITTLE SON'S LIFE.

Mr. H. H. Black, the well known village blacksmith at Grahamville, Fulton County, N. Y., says: "Our little son, 5 years old, was away from home when I got a call to my shop. When I got there he had been found near the blacksmith's forge. He was unconscious, but I had heard him say that he had been stung by a bee, and I carried him to the forge and fanned him with a bellows. He soon recovered, but Chamberlain's Conquer Remedy is now our sole reliance. It seems to do the good muscle and by driving fresh air directly into the lungs the remedy appears to have found that the dried crop is cured before it gets to the lungs. I have tried this remedy for it contains no opium or injurious drug and may be given as easily to a babe as to an adult. For sale by C. H. COOPER, Hickman, and A. M. Shaw, State Line.
